Yellow warning
Wind

Between 12:00 Sun 20 Feb 2022 and
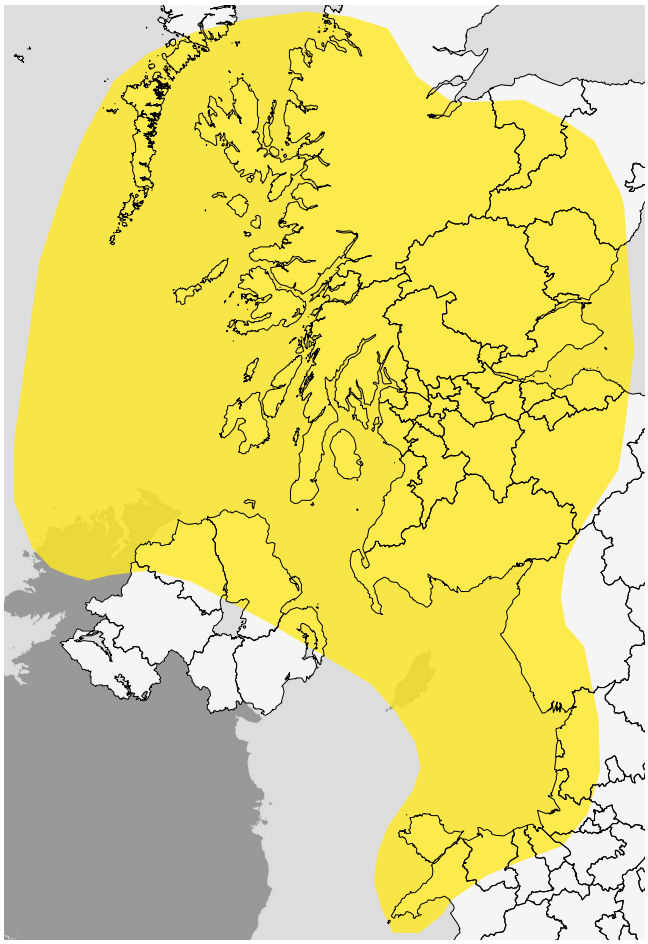
12:00 Mon 21 Feb 2022



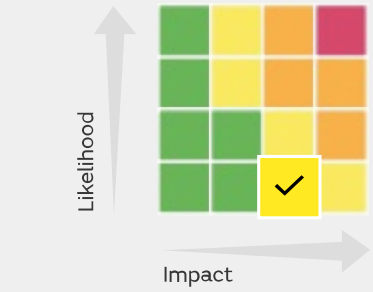
Very strong winds are expected across parts of Northern Ireland, Scotland and also some Irish Sea coasts.

What to expect

- There is a slight chance of some damage to buildings, such as tiles blown from roofs
- There is a small chance that injuries and danger to life could occur from large waves and beach material being thrown onto sea fronts, coastal roads and properties
- There is a small chance of longer journey times or cancellations as road, rail, air and ferry services are affected

Further details

Another spell of very strong winds is expected in parts of Northern Ireland, Scotland and also some Irish Sea coasts. Winds could gust to 50 to 60 mph inland, and between 70 and 80 mph for a time on the mountains and exposed coasts, with large waves expected as well. The strong winds will be accompanied by heavy, frequent and increasingly wintry showers with blizzard conditions expected in the mountains, before conditions ease later on Monday.



Very low likelihood of medium impacts
